

Quebec Immigrant Investor Program

In 1986, the Quebec government created its Immigrant Investor Program in order to favor the entry of business people and their families to Quebec as permanent residents. Under this program, potential immigrant investors will obtain a Quebec Selection Certificate by making a passive investment and settling in Quebec. This is a pathway for immigrant investors and their families to obtain a Canadian permanent residency.

Admissibility Criteria

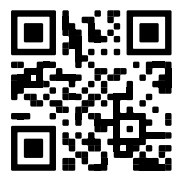

The program is meant for immigrant investors who want to settle in the province of Quebec. To qualify, an applicant must:

- Net worth of C$2,000,000; Applicants must be able to demonstrate the legal origin and accumulation of the net worth.
- Education: Applicants must hold a diploma corresponding minimally to a secondary school diploma in Quebec.
- Management experience: 2 years acquired in the five (5) years preceding the application.
- Language requirement: Knowledge of spoken French corresponding minimally to level 7 according to the Quebec scale of French proficiency levels.
